

FAMILY VIOLENCE RESOURCES

San Francisco Bay Area and California

Child Abuse Prevention Council (Contra Costa County: 925-946-9961; Alameda County: 510-780-8989; Marin County: 415-507-0181)

These community organizations offer resources for abused children and their families.

Kid's Turn 415-437-0700

Counseling programs for divorcing families, including groups for children and for parents.

California Youth Crisis Line 800-843-5200

Helpline for children and adolescents in crisis. Confidential and toll-free.

National Resources

Helplink 800-273-6222

General information line for mental health, legal and other services

National Domestic Violence Hotline 800-799-7233

General information line for victims of domestic violence, including referrals to nearby shelters.

Domestic Abuse Helpline for Men 888-743-5754

Provide resources for male victims, and female perpetrators, throughout the United States.

Stop Abuse for Everyone (SAFE) www.Safe4all.org

Resources for all victims of domestic violence, with an emphasis on underserved populations (men, gays and lesbians)

Elder Abuse Hotline 202-898-2586, or www.elderabusecenter.org

Child Help U.S.A. 800-422-4453

Crisis counseling for parents and children. Also provides resources and information.

Prevent Child Abuse America www.preventchildabuse.org

Information and resources on family violence.

ACFLS www.acfls.org/dv_links.htm

This family law organization's website has an extensive list of other DV-related websites